

RADLing – Terms of Service Addendum

Effective Date: 01/03/2025

This Terms of Service Addendum (“Addendum”) applies specifically to RADLing, an AI-powered language learning service operated by RAD Automations.

This Addendum supplements the RAD Automations Terms of Service (the “Backbone Terms”). All capitalized terms not defined in this Addendum have the meanings given in the Backbone Terms. In the event of a conflict, this Addendum controls only with respect to RADLing.

By accessing or using RADLing, you agree to this Addendum in addition to the Backbone Terms.

1. Service Description

RADLing provides language learning tools, which may include lessons, translation features, practice exercises, quizzes, pronunciation feedback, conversational practice, and other educational functionality.

RADLing is accessed using the unified RAD Account described in the Backbone Terms.

2. Eligibility and Use Restrictions

RADLing is not directed to children under the age of 13. By using RADLing, you represent that you meet the minimum age requirements set forth in the Backbone Terms.

You agree to use RADLing only for lawful, personal, and educational purposes and in compliance with the Backbone Terms and this Addendum.

3. AI-Generated Content and Educational Disclaimer

RADLing uses automated systems and artificial intelligence to generate lessons, translations, explanations, feedback, and conversational responses.

AI-generated outputs may be inaccurate, incomplete, or inappropriate and are provided for general educational and informational purposes only. RADLing does not provide professional, academic certification, legal, or medical advice.

You are solely responsible for how you interpret and use any content generated through RADLing.

4. User Content

RADLing may allow you to submit or generate content, including text, prompts, audio recordings, and other inputs (“User Content”).

You retain ownership of your User Content. By submitting User Content through RADLing, you grant RAD Automations the limited license described in the Backbone Terms solely for the purpose of operating, maintaining, and improving RADLing.

You represent that you have all rights necessary to submit your User Content and that such content does not violate applicable law or third-party rights.

5. Learning Progress and Data Continuity

RADLing may track learning progress, preferences, and usage patterns to personalize your experience and enable continuity across sessions and devices.

RAD Automations does not guarantee that learning progress, history, or content will be preserved indefinitely and may modify or discontinue features at any time as described in the Backbone Terms.

6. Third-Party Services

RADLing may rely on third-party services for AI processing, hosting, analytics, or other functionality. Your use of RADLing remains governed by the Backbone Terms, and you do not enter into a direct relationship with these third-party providers.

7. Suspension or Termination of RADLing Access

In addition to the rights described in the Backbone Terms, RAD Automations may suspend or terminate your access to RADLing if you violate this Addendum, misuse RADLing features, or engage in behavior that interferes with the service or other users.

8. Relationship to Backbone Terms

Except as expressly modified by this Addendum, the Backbone Terms apply in full to your use of RADLing.
